Pass around the Q & A sheet.....

Old Business

- July picnic attendance was 74. Name tags were provided by Mary Gross (good idea!)

New Business

- Jeff Mehn from Above and Beyond Children's Museum gave a brief talk on the Observation Hive that is being installed by the Museum. Dennis Wettstein is continuing to help with this.
- Tammy handed out membership booklets. Jeff Mehn mentioned they could do printing projects for us in the future.
- Tammy has supers wooden ware for sale.
- Kurt reported that Fleet Farm has listed our website on their beekeeping display.
- Garry Sydow's twin brother from California was visiting. (Also a beekeeper!) ☺
- Should we have BINGO at the November Christmas party instead of the gift exchange. Discussion on this is tabled until the August meeting.
- Kurt and Kathy Petersen did a presentation at Sheridan Elementary in Sheboygan.

Correspondence

- Presented by Kurt Petersen - Emma Stein, is an artist in residence, will be working with Kurt and Kathy Petersen this summer to incorporate bees into her artwork.
- Miles Thompson gathered a swarm in the Plymouth area.
- Two women, Karen Ausavich, near Plymouth, and Nancy Wheeler, near Elkhart Lake, would like bee hives on their property.
- Kurt passed around a letter/pamphlet from a gentleman in New York concerning beekeeping t-shirts.

Q & A Discussion

Hive report - so so, some members already have full supers but others were having a slow start.

Program - Jeff Mehn from Above and Beyond Children's Museum (see New Business)
Refreshments - John and Beate Lucynski

Motion to adjourn - First - Kurt Petersen
Second - Kevin Krueger

Respectfully submitted by Kurt Petersen
